Were you the victim of an alleged sexual offence when you were under the age of 18?
YES
Was the offence committed in England or Wales?
YES
Have you reported this alleged offence to the police?
YES
Was a decision to take no further action taken by the police or CPS?
YES
NO
Have you been the victim of a sexual offence and feel you need support?
YES
There is support available to you when you're ready.
Visit cps.gov.uk and click on the Victims & witnesses section to find out more
NO
If you need to talk to somebody about what happened to you, or understand what your options are, visit cps.gov.uk and click on Victims & witnesses at the top of the page
Your case may be eligible to be reviewed by the CSARP
To refer your case to the panel, email nationalpanel@npcc.police.uk
You can also contact the police force you originally reported to or the Crown Prosecution Service